IN RE CATHODE RAY TUBE (CRT) ANTITRUST
LITIGATION

MDL No 1917

Master Case No 3:07-cv-05944SC

This Order Relates To:

Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs v Mitsubishi

ORDER RE DIRECT PURCHASER
PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO COMPEL
SUPPLEMENTAL DISCOVERY RESPONSES FROM MITSUBISHI

1 Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs ("DPPs") moved for an order requiring the Mitsubishi
2 Defendants¹ (collectively, "Mitsubishi") to (1) serve original Exhibits A and B to its supplemental 3 interrogatory responses, (2) serve complete and verified supplemental responses to 4 Interrogatory No 12, including new information and sales figures, (3) make deponents Messrs
5 Koji Murata and Masahiko Konishi available for further examination in San Francisco and (4) 6 reopen any deposition for which there is new information. The undersigned issued an order on 7 April 28, 2015, Dkt 3830, granting the first two requests in the DPPs' motion and granting 8 Mitsubishi the opportunity to address the third request. The fourth request remains pending 9 and may be updated if the parties are unable to reach agreement after further meeting and 10 conferring. On May 26, 2015, Mitsubishi submitted a supplemental letter brief and on June 2, 11 2015, the DPPs submitted a reply letter brief regarding the outstanding issues.

12 In the meantime, the undersigned issued an order dated May 28, 2015, Dkt
13 3859, granting the DPPs' separate motion to compel further testimony and evidence of Mr 14 Murata based on events occurring during the deposition. On June 10, 2015, Mitsubishi 15 submitted a letter requesting consideration of its sur-response, with revised positions on the 16 scope of the Murata deposition and other issues. The parties are now negotiating a late June 17 date for Mr Murata's deposition in San Francisco. Currently at issue and addressed in this order
18 are the further examination of Messrs Murata and Konishi and the adequacy of Mitsubishi's 19 third supplemental response to the DPPs' Interrogatory No 12.

20 The undersigned has reviewed the parties' supplemental submissions and issues 21 the order that follows.

I. Further Deposition of Messrs Murata and Konishi

Mitsubishi originally contended that apart from the further deposition order on May 28, there is no need to depose Koji Murata or Masahiko Konishi further because there is no new discovery on which to question them. Mitsubishi asserted that: (1) the original Exhibits A and B were produced to the DPPs in September 2014, three months before the initial Murata and Konishi depositions in December 2014; (2) at their depositions, both Messrs Murata and Konishi were questioned extensively about Exhibit B; and (3) no additional sales data exist on which to question either witness. The DPPs, in Mitsubishi's view, had a full and fair opportunity to question Messrs Murata and Konishi in December and suffered no prejudice that warrants a resumption of their depositions.

According to Mitsubishi, the only discovery that the DPPs lacked when deposing Messrs Murata and Konishi in December 2014 was a revised Exhibit B that was provided to the DPPs on January 16, 2015 as part of Mitsubishi's Second Supplemental Responses. 5/26/15 Fuentes Ltr at 11. Mitsubishi "revised Exhibit B to accommodate the DPPs' broader requests for competitor meetings" since the DPPs' interrogatory was broader than that of the Direct Action Plaintiffs ("DAPs"). Revised Exhibit B identified 22 meetings that were not listed on the original Exhibit B. Id. But the DPPs were not prejudiced, according to Mitsubishi, because "every one of these meetings is reflected in the documents Mitsubishi Electric had already produced to the DPPs" and Messrs Murata and Konishi had been asked about meetings that were not on the earlier version of Exhibit B. Id.

Finally, Mitsubishi objected to the further depositions, asserting that requiring further depositions of two busy Mitsubishi executives who both live outside the United States, would be "costly and unduly burdensome," that during their depositions, their recollections about meetings with other CRT producers had already been exhausted, and both men are "essential to their respective business units." 5/26/15 Fuentes Ltr at 1.

1 The DPPs respond that: (1) Mitsubishi's revised Exhibit B and second 2 supplemental response to Interrogatory 5 "identify over 50 new meetings and contacts" on 3 which Messrs Murata and Konishi were not examined during their depositions in December 4 2014; (2) the DPPs' questions regarding competitor meetings without the benefit of documents 5 do not foreclose the likelihood that additional meaningful testimony could be elicited using 6 information about specific meetings and related documents to refresh the witnesses' 7 recollections; and (3) Mitsubishi's previous production of underlying documents about the 8 additional meetings should not excuse the late production of the January 16, 2015 revised 9 Exhibit B because "there have been millions of pages of documents produced in this action in 10 several different languages." 6/2/15 Saveri Ltr at 2.

11 Based on the parties' submissions, it appears that the following facts are 12 undisputed:

13 (1) By the December 2014 depositions of Messrs Murata and Konishi, the DPPs
14 had an original Exhibit B that Mitsubishi had served in response to the DAPS'
15 First Set of Interrogatories in September 2014 ("original Exhibit B"). 5/26/14
16 Fuentes Dec, Ex 2.

17 (2) On September 17, 2014, in response to the DAPs request, Mitsubishi sent an 18 updated Exhibit B containing Bates numbers of the documentary backup to 19 the information contained in the original Exhibit B ("9/17/2014 updated 20 Exhibit B"). 5/26/14 Fuentes Dec, Ex 3-4.

21 (3) On January 16, 2015, Mitsubishi served its supplemental discovery response 22 including a revised Exhibit B ("1/16/15 revised Exhibit B") responsive to the 23 DPPs' discovery requests that were broader than the DAPs' prior discovery
24 requests for which the original Exhibit B and the September 17, 2014
25 updated Exhibit B had been prepared. 5/26/15 Fuentes Ltr at 11, 5/26/15
26 Fuentes Dec, Ex 14.

1 (4) The January 16, 2015 revised Exhibit B identified at least 22 additional 2 meetings and their associated documentary backup in the form of Bates 3 numbers that had not been disclosed in the previously produced versions of 4 Exhibit B. Compare 5/26/14 Fuentes Dec, Ex 14 with Ex 2 and 4.

5 (5) By the time of the December 2014 depositions of Messrs Murata and 6 Konishi, the DPPs had the September 17, 2014 updated Exhibit B containing 7 information about 35 meetings, including Bates numbers for their 8 documentary backup.

9 (6) The DPPs did not have the January 16, 2015 revised Exhibit B and its entries 10 describing the 22 additional meetings and associated Bates numbers when 11 they deposed Messrs Murata and Konishi in December 2014.

12 (7) The parties are negotiating the further deposition of Mr Murata in late June 13 2015 in response to the May 28, 2015 recommended order of the 14 undersigned (Dkt 3859) to which neither party has objected. 6/10/15 15 Fuentes Ltr at 1.

16 Having carefully considered the supplemental submissions (over 1,500 pages), 17 the undersigned concludes that having the opportunity to question Messrs Murata and Konishi 18 using the original Exhibit B may have been useful to the DPPs but it was not sufficient. The 19 original Exhibit B had to be supplemented to respond fully to the DPPs' broader discovery 20 requests, as admitted by Mitsubishi. 5/26/15 Fuentes Ltr at 11.

21 There is no dispute that the January 16, 2015 revised Exhibit B contained 22 information about an additional 22 meetings with backup documents by Bates numbers. This 23 missing information is substantial in that the 22 additional meetings with competitors and some 24 number of new contacts may be highly relevant to key issues or may lead to admissible 25 evidence in this MDL. There is no dispute that evidence about Mitsubishi's meetings with 26 competitors during the class period is relevant.

1 In weighing the burdens, the undersigned considers that Mitsubishi's delayed
2 production of relevant discovery responses prevented the DPPs from conducting the full scope 3 of their examinations of Messrs Murata and Konishi with information to which they were 4 entitled under the federal discovery rules. Because Mitsubishi had the DPPs' First Set of 5 Interrogatories by September 4, 2014 and failed to produce a full response with the updated
6 Exhibit B until January 16, 2015, after the Murata and Konishi depositions had been conducted 7 in December 2014, it is reasonable to place the burden on Mitsubishi to make Messrs Murata
8 and Konishi available for further deposition in San Francisco. Any burden of international travel
9 or time away from important corporate responsibilities suffered by Mitsubishi executives 10 should be borne by Mitsubishi for its failure to produce the updated Exhibit B before the 11 Murata and Konishi depositions. Mitsubishi and its counsel had knowledge of the scope of the 12 DPPs' interrogatories and could have requested a delay in the depositions pending 13 supplementation of discovery or moved for a protective order granting an extension of time.

14 Moreover, there is no additional burden with respect to Mr Murata since the 15 undersigned has already granted the DPPs' separate motion to compel his deposition in San 16 Francisco. Mitsubishi's June 10, 2015 Sur-response letter to the undersigned states that it 17 "see[s] no reason why Mr. Murata may not also be asked about the January 16 supplemental 18 interrogatory response, as well as the sales data information" and that counsel for the parties 19 "already have discussed reaching a further agreement on the scope of Mr Murata's deposition 20 in this respect." 6/10/15 Fuentes Ltr at 1. Mitsubishi requests that after the Murata
21 deposition, the parties be heard and then the undersigned may consider whether requiring Mr 22 Konishi's deposition would be appropriate.

23 The Mitsubishi proposal seems reasonable. During Mr Murata's deposition in 24 June 2015, the DPPs may examine him about Mitsubishi's January 16 supplemental 25 interrogatory response and any subsequent Mitsubishi responses, Mitsubishi's sales data 26 information and its search for and disposition of relevant documents. The Konishi deposition 27

1 will be postponed until after the Murata deposition and a hearing before the undersigned at a 2 date to be determined.

3 II. Mitsubishi's Supplemental Response to DPPs' Interrogatory No 12

4 With respect to Mitsubishi's supplemental response to Interrogatory No 12, 5 relating to Mitsubishi's CRT and CRT Product sales, Mitsubishi asserts that it cannot produce 6 information or documents it does not possess. Mitsubishi asserts that its third supplemental 7 response served on May 26, 2015 clarifies "the specific sales data that it has produced" and 8 confirms that "after completing its investigation, no other data exists." 5/26/15 Fuentes Ltr at 9 4. Mitsubishi also explains that the reason for the limited sales data in its possession is due to 10 the following: (1) Mitsubishi was not a defendant in this MDL until August 2012 (Dkt 1325); 11 (2) the DPPs did not sue Mitsubishi until very recently, May 5, 2014, seven years after the 12 conspiracy was alleged to have ended; (3) Mitsubishi exited the CPT business in 1998, eight 13 years before the end of the class period; and (4) Mitsubishi stopped manufacturing and selling 14 CDTs in the 2004/2005 timeframe. 5/26/15 Fuentes Ltr at 5.

15 The DPPs assert that: (1) Mitsubishi's third supplemental response to 16 Interrogatory No 12 is still insufficient because a more informative response can be provided 17 even with the existing documents and (2) Mitsubishi's explanation for why it does not have any 18 other sales data fails to provide any information about its search process or destruction or loss 19 of information. 6/2/15 Saveri Ltr at 3-5.

20 The undersigned has reviewed Mitsubishi's third supplemental response to the 21 DPPs' Interrogatory No 12 and finds it sparse. The parties' submissions have raised issues
22 regarding the adequacy of Mitsubishi's document productions, the existence of responsive 23 documents and what happened to responsive documents that no longer exist. Paragraph 3 of 24 the May 26, 2015 Fuentes Declaration, based solely on information and belief, raises more questions than it answers.² In light of these circumstances, Mitsubishi may consider whether further supplementation may be appropriate. If the parties are unable to reach agreement after further conferring, either party may submit a motion and request the undersigned to conduct a hearing.
25
26

The DPPs' motion to compel is granted in part. Mitsubishi is ordered to produce Mr Murata for his deposition in San Francisco consistent with the 5/28/15 Order (Dkt 3859) and the scope of his deposition may include topics raised in this motion (e g, the January 16, 2015 Third Supplemental Response, Mitsubishi's sales data information and the disposition of responsive documents). The deposition of Mr Konishi shall be postponed until after the Murata deposition and after a hearing before the undersigned at a date to be determined. The parties shall inform the undersigned of their requested hearing dates after the Murata deposition.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
